(Successor to the Maryville Republican)

VOLUME 2.

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, TUESDAY, JULY 25, 1911.

NO. 44.

POSTAL BANK HERE

AUGUST 19 IS THE DATE SET FOR THE OPENING.

ARE SUCCESS ELSEWHERE

Savings Accounts Can Be Started With $1, and $500 Is the Limit of Individual Deposits.

Postmaster S. R. Beech has received word from Postmaster General Hitchcock at Washington, D. C., to open a postal savings bank in Maryville on August 19, 1911. Many of the other towns in Missouri have now postal savings banks in connection with the postoffice, and they have met with good success, and it has been shown that they interfere in no way with the business of the local banks.

In Cripple Creek, Col., where the biggest bank of the country is at present, the deposits now aggregate more than $66,000, and the ordinary deposits of the Cripple Creek banks have sustained no decrease. The $66,000 was simply coaxed out of hiding places and belonged to people who did not have enough money to start a bank account or were afraid of banks. In the postal savings bank one can start a savings account with 10 cents.

The funds gathered by the postal savings bank are loaned by it to the local banks when they furnish satisfactory security, and thus the money remains in the locality in which it was created. The United States government stands back of all deposits, and 2 per cent interest per annum is paid to depositors.

The windows on the west side of the postoffice building now used for money orders and registrations will be used for the bank, under the direction of Postmaster S. R. Beech.

Below will be found some information in regard to the rules and plans of the postal savings bank to be opened here, the information being written by Postmaster-General Hitchcock:

Object.

The postal savings system is established for the purpose of providing facilities for depositing savings at interest with the security of the United States government for repayment.

Safety.

The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of deposits made in postal savings depository offices with accrued interest as provided by the postal savings act.

Who May Deposit.

Accounts may be opened and deposits made by any person of the age of 10 years or over in his or her own name and by a married woman in her own name and free from any interference or control by her husband. No person can have more than one account at any one time.

No person may open a postal savings account at any postoffice who is not a patron of that office.

All accounts must be opened in person by the depositor or his authorized representative. After opening an account a depositor may forward subsequent deposits to the postoffice by mail.

Deposits will be accepted only from individuals, and no account will be opened in the name of any corporation, association, society, firm or partnership, or in the names of two or more persons jointly.

No account will be opened in the name of one person in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons.

How to Open an Account.

When a person applies to open an account he must furnish the necessary information for the postmaster or his representative to fill out an application, which he will then be required to sign. If the applicant signs by mark his signature must be witnessed by a disinterested person.

Deposits.

Deposits are evidenced by postal savings certificates issued in fixed denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100, each bearing the name of the depositor, the number of his account, the date of issue, the name of the depository office, and the date on which interest begins. The postmaster or his representative will make out a duplicate of each certificate issued, which the depositor will be required to sign and which the postmaster will retain in his records.

No account may be opened for less than $1, nor will fractions of a dollar be accepted for deposit.

No person is permitted to deposit more than $100 in any one calendar month nor to have a total balance to his credit at one time of more than $500 exclusive of accumulated interest.

Savings certificates cannot be transferred or negotiated and will be payable only to the person to whom issued.

On opening an account a depositor is supplied with an envelope in which he may keep his savings certificates. On this envelope is printed information for his guidance, and also a blank ledger record on which to keep an account of his deposits and withdrawals.

In case a savings certificate is lost or destroyed the depositor should notify the postmaster. If deemed proper a new certificate will be issued upon compliance by the depositor with the necessary requirements.

Postmasters are not permitted to receive savings certificates for safekeeping.

Interest.

Interest will be allowed on all deposits at the rate of 2 per cent per annum, computed on each savings certificate separately, and payable annually. No interest will be paid on money which remains on deposit for a fraction of a year only.

Deposits will bear interest from the 1st day of the month next following that in which deposited.

Interest will continue to accrue on a savings certificate as long as it remains outstanding, certificate being valid until paid, without limitation as to time.

Compound interest is not allowed on an outstanding certificate, but a depositor may withdraw interest payable and include it in a new deposit, which will bear interest at the regular rate.

Withdrawals.

A depositor may at any time withdraw the whole or any part of his deposits to his credit with any interest payable by surrendering saving certificates, properly indorsed, for the amount desired.

YOUNG MAN BADLY INJURED ON WABASH BRIDGE

John Carid, a member of the bridge gang that is working on the Wabash bridge over the 102 river, was badly hurt this morning, when he fell off the bridge and sustained serious injuries. He was taken on a handcar to the state road bridge on the Wabash by Henry Steele, foreman of the bridge gang, and there met by an ambulance which took him to St. Francis hospital.

The young man's home is in Brunswick, and he is about 35 years old. He sustained a broken leg and other internal injuries. His physician, Dr. G. A. Nash, reports him resting easy this afternoon, and says his chances for recovery are good.

This is the second accident that has happened at the Wabash river bridge, which is being repaired. Amos Beach, a concrete worker, was killed last Thursday afternoon, when a rope broke that was fastened to a derrick, causing him to fall on his head on a pile of lumber and steel.

Barnard People in Town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbell and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Lett of Barnard were in Maryville Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell are the parents of the late Oda Hubbell, who was killed last November.

The fire team was called to the Jones blacksmith shop this afternoon, on what proved to be a false alarm. There was a little fire, but it was put out in a few minutes.

DIED IN COLORADO

MRS. WM. H. WALKER OF BURLINGTON JUNCTION.

CAME TO COUNTY IN 1865

Remains Will Be Brought Back for Burial—Eight Sons and Daughters Survive.

Mrs. William H. Walker of Burlington Junction, who has been visiting her son, Everett Walker, and wife of Loveland, Col., died in Denver, Col., Monday evening of Bright's disease. Mrs. Walker, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anna Walker, has been spending several weeks in Colorado. When she became seriously ill they sent a telegram to Charles Walker, her son at Burlington Junction to come at once to Colorado, and he started at once to his mother's bedside, but the second telegram was sent, saying their mother was unconscious and it would be useless for him to come. He was then on his way to Colorado, but the relatives at Burlington Junction wired to St. Joseph and he received the word and returned home.

Mrs. Walker was the widow of the late William H. Walker, one of the most influential and highly respected citizens of Northwestern Missouri.

Mr. Walker was a member of the Twenty-sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, being one of the members of Company B, which saw some very strenuous service.

Mrs. Walker's maiden name was Mary A. Manes, and she was born in Brownsburg, Ind. She was the daughter of Elihu and Margaret Manes, who, in 1865, came to Nodaway county, Missouri, and located near Clearmont.

William H. Walker came to Nodaway county in 1865 with his parents, and they purchased land where the Walker homestead now is.

December 24, 1868, William H. Walker and Miss Mary Manes were united in marriage. After their marriage they began farming two and one-quarter miles south of Clearmont and there developed a good farm, where they lived until 1880. Then they bought the present Walker homestead, where Mr. Walker's death occurred on November 2, 1907.

Mr. Walker accumulated a great deal of land and left his widow well provided for.

Mrs. Walker was a member of the Christian church and was a highly respected and well loved Christian woman.

Miss Anna Walker of Burlington Junction, who was with her mother and Everett Walker and wife of Loveland, Col., started to Burlington Junction Tuesday with the remains and are expected to reach there Wednesday evening. No definite arrangements have been made for the funeral, which will be in Burlington Junction.

Mrs. Walker leaves eight living children to mourn her loss. They are: Charles E., William H. and Jesse H. of Burlington Junction; Edward M., living north of Maryville; Everett E. of Loveland, Col.; Mrs. E. T. McDowell of Okmulgee, Okla.; Mrs. Lewis Allen of St. Joseph, and Miss Anna Walker, who lives at home.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE AT SKIDMORE THIS WEEK

WHAT OTHERS PAY

WATER RATES PREVALLING IN OTHER TOWNS INVESTIGATED.

MUCH LOWER THAN HERE

Reports Are Generally Official—Enthusiastic Approval of Municipal Ownership from Columbia.

Since Maryville is to vote on Tuesday, August 15, on $100,000 bond issue to install a water plant, it might be well to read what some nearby towns have to say about municipal ownership and the rates they are charging.

These letters were received by Mayor Robey, and some of them were read at the public meeting of the citizens last week. More letters will be published later on.

From the letters below it will be seen that their water is not costing any of those towns more than 25 cents per 1,000 gallons, while we are now paying 33 1/3 cents per 1,000 gallons with a 50 cents minimum rate, and the company wanted to raise it to 50 cents per 1,000 gallons and 75 cents minimum rate.

Columbia, Mo.

The following was the letter Mayor Robey received from Columbia from E. C. Clinkscale, superintendent of the Columbia water and light department: "This town is thoroughly convinced that municipal ownership of its water and electric light business is the proper thing. When it is considered that the water and light used by the public for fire protection and for street lighting would cost the city, if owned by a private company, not less than $16,000 per annum, and does not cost anything under municipal ownership, the reason for our faith is apparent. Columbia is not only getting its public water and light free of cost, but the department is now earning $20,000 per year in addition. Other departments of the city draw on our funds occasionally to pay their bills and repay when they have the money.

"Our water is from deep wells and is fine. We sell it from 18 cents per 1,000 gallons up to 25 cents per 1,000 gallons. We don't make much on our water. You understand we have to pump it twice; once from the ground, then again in the pipes. If we used this from the river or creek, where the water flowed right into the pumps, it could be hauled much cheaper.

"The price of water is 25 cents per 1,000 gallons up to 8,000 gallons used in one month. When the quantity is greater the price is reduced as shown by the scale below: For less than 8,000 gallons, 25 cents; for 8,000 to 16,000, 24 cents; for 16,000 to 24,000, 23 cents; for 24,000 to 32,000, 22 cents; for 32,000 to 40,000, 21 cents; for 40,000 to 48,000, 20 cents; for 48,000 to 56,000, 19 cents; for 56,000 to 64,000, 18 cents; for 64,000 gallons or over, 18 cents."

Clarinda, Ia.

In a communication from the city clerk, C. W. Stuart, at Clarinda to Mayor Robey, he says: "The city owns the water system. The electric light plant pumps water from the wells, which are located in the incorporated limits. No charge for hydrants as city owns the water plant. The meter rate is 20 cents per 1,000 gallons to every one using water. No minimum or flat rate."

Wellington, Kan.

From M. E. Stone, superintendent of the water plant at Wellington: "The plant is under municipal ownership and we get our water from wells and creek, being located one mile from town. The meter rate is 15 cents per 1,000 gallons. Where city owns meter a rent of 25 cents per month is charged, and minimum rate of 50 cents per month is collected, regardless of quantity of water consumed."

Fairfield, Ia.

From W. L. Long, city clerk, says: "The water plant is owned by the city and is located about a mile from town. The plant pays a revenue of $2,500 per year above all expenses, without an interest on investment, assuming the one will offset the other. The meter maximum rate is 40, the minimum 15 cents; kitchen sink, $5; closet, $5; bath, $3, on flat rate."

Red Oak, Ia.

From city clerk at Red Oak: "The city owns the water system and contracts with the Electric Light company for the pumping at 5 cents per 1,000 gallons. The Electric Light company supply their own motor and pump in duplicate, and that is all they have anything to do with. They contract to keep our stand pipe full of water under ordinary conditions. We have two wells filled by spring water, 24 feet in diameter by 40 feet in depth. The plant is located not more than three-fourths of a mile from business section. Do not make any charge to city for hydrants. We have but one flat rate of $6 per year where there is no sewer connection with the property, others are all metered. Our meter rates follow: Five hundred gallons, 25 cents per 1,000 gallons; 500 to 1,000 gallons, 20 cents per 1,000 gallons; 1,000 to 2,000, 16 cents; 2,000 to 3,000, 13 cents; 3,000 to 4,000, 12 cents; 4,000 to 5,000, 11 cents; over 5,000 gallons, special; minimum rate of 75 cents per quarter."

Shenandoah, Ia.

From the city clerk at Shenandoah: "The city owns the plant and the cook wells are located six blocks from the business section. The meter rates are: Less than 100 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 20 cents; 100 to 500 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 20 cents; 500 to 1,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 20 cents; 1,000 to 5,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 18 cents; 5,000 to 10,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 12 cents; 10,000 to 20,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 8 cents."

EVERY LINE A LIFT

HOMER CROY BOASTS IN "THE MAGAZINE MAKER."

A MAGAZINE ON WRITING

The Unique Venture of a Former Maryville Boy Gives Birth to a New Idea.

A copy of the Homer Croy's new magazine, "The Magazine Maker," was received by The Democrat-Forum this morning. It is a creditable edition and is a magazine for writers and editors. Many of the biggest editors over the country are writing Mr. Croy, telling him that it fills the long felt and that he has struck something big.

Mr. Croy, besides running this magazine, has outside magazine work and newspaper contracts to fill. In the Judge he has a weekly department—"We Have With Us Tonight."

Mr. Croy is a former Maryville boy who is making a success and his many friends back here wish him the best of luck in his new venture.

In the first number Mr. Croy, in writing under the caption "Finding Our Toes," says:

You have in your hands the first number of this magazine. Of course, now that you have it before you it looks easy, but Oh the nights we have sat up with it! We remember the day we got the idea to start this magazine. It hit us all in a bunch, and the milk wagons were beginning to rattle before it would let us get a shred from the raveled sleeve.

We think any big idea makes one a bit immortal.

Our aim is very simple. We are going to give you a magazine on writing and making magazines that you will read from cover to cover. It will be written by men who are actually in the business of writing, whose advice can be relied upon. Its contributors are not mere theorists, but people who make their bread and butter by writing. The biggest names in the magazine field will appear in this magazine. We shall cover the whole business of writing—from trade journals to novels.

Maybe you had better read over the sub-title again.

We're going to tell you from month to month how to develop ideas for articles and stories, how to write the stories and articles and how and where to sell your manuscripts. Everything but getting the idea. You will have to do that yourself.

This magazine will always be bright and up-to-the-minute. If any reader should report that he nodded over a single page the editor would feel eternally disgraced.

Every line's a lift.

In this number we are just finding our toes. The next time we come to you we will be walking, and pretty soon we'll be a lusty youngster that you'll be proud to have in your literary family. The contents are what count, and every time we look at our index we smile all over. We're proud of every page in the magazine. We're not very big this time but we're going to grow, grow, grow—just like that. The subscription price is a dollar a year—now!

The Burglar and the Girl.

There was fun a-plenty among a crowd of young ladies on West Third street Monday night, so thought two officers when they arrived on the scene and found, instead of a thief or drunken man, a porch full of smiling, happy and fun loving girls. It happened this way:

Mrs. Frances Totterdale and daughter, Anna Belle, of West Third street, were preparing to retire for the night when a step was heard on their back porch. At first they thought it was Mrs. G. W. Turner, a neighbor lady, but as she did not walk in a suspicious arose in the minds of the ladies that it might be some one else, so Miss Anna Belle called to know who was there. No response. On looking through a window she could see a man standing there and she asked again who was there and what was wanted. Again no response. She tried to remember Mrs. Turner's name to call her by phone, but the only thing she could remember when she reached the telephone was to call for help, so she turned in a police alarm, and in the course of a very short time the officers were there ready to take the offender into custody, but when they arrived the "man" had made his "get away," and they found instead a crowd of pleasure seeking girls, and "mum's the word" as to who the boy of the crowd was.

KEELEY TESTIFIES IN LORIMER CASE

Tells of Alleged Attempt to Buy Votes for Hopkins.

Washington, July 25.—A detailed account of a reputed attempt to buy enough Democratic votes in the Illinois legislature to re-elect Albert J. Hopkins to the senate was told on the witness stand before the senate Lorimer committee by James Keeley, general manager of the Chicago Tribune.

It was the sensation of a day of sensations in the hearing. It followed Mr. Keeley's testimony as to how he happened to buy the confession of Charles A. White, the legislator whose story about graft at Springfield resulted in the Lorimer investigation. It was subsequent to testimony by Edward Hines that Henry S. Boutell, now American minister to Switzerland, told him that President Taft would assist in the election of Lorimer to the senate.

WILL CAUCUS ON WOOL

Democrats May Decide to Support House Bill Instead of La Follette Bill.

Washington, July 25.—The Democratic senators have decided to hold a caucus tomorrow to decide on wool tariff revision. Democratic leaders are contenting themselves to vote on the house wool bill and to refrain from passing the La Follette wool bill, though senatorial advocates of the La Follette bill are in the majority. Many conferences have been held among Democrats and insurgents and the question is monopolizing the attention of senators.

Debate on the Underwood revision bill from the house, beginning after routine business, will run until the vote next Thursday.

The senate is going ahead with the program agreed on for clearing up all important business. When the wool vote has been taken up Thursday debate on the free list bill will begin and that measure will be voted on Aug. 1.

Then will come the house reappointment bill, with a vote on Aug. 3, to be followed by the statehood measure, to be voted on Aug. 7.

COMMITTEE MEETS ARBUCKLE

Propped Up in Bed, Sugar Magnate Gives Testimony.

New Platts, N. Y., July 25.—The one good reason why the warring sugar interests did not sign an agreement to end the conflict was fear of the Sherman anti-trust law. There were minor considerations, of course, but every time the matter was broached to John Arbuckle, when the fight waged warmest, Mr. Arbuckle declined and told his opponents to remember the Sherman law.

Propped up by pillows in his bed, Mr. Arbuckle so testified before a subcommittee of the congressional investigating committee. The congressmen had come to Mr. Arbuckle's bedside because he was unable to come to them and they found him apparently unreserved in giving the history of his commercial battles.

WILD SCENES IN COMMONS

Premier Howled Down When He Attempts to Speak on Veto.

FINALLY ABANDONS HIS SPEECH

Tells Members of Parliament That the King Will Create the Necessary Peers if the Lords Refuse to Drop Amendments to Measure.

London, July 25.—The last act of the parliamentary revolution was ushered in with a revolutionary scene. For the first time in its history, the house of commons refused to listen to a speech by the prime minister. For the first time in its history the speaker was compelled to invoke the rule which empowers him "in case of grave disorder" to declare the sitting adjourned on his own responsibility.

No such hostile passions have been given free rein in a chamber which traditionally carries on its debates with chivalrous courtesy, since the stormy days of the Gladstone home rule bills.

During three quarters of an hour, Mr. Asquith rose at short intervals and read a sentence or two from a manuscript, only to be overwhelmed by jeers, howlings and cries, among which "traitor" was the most frequent, but with "Redmond," "Patrick Ford" and "American dollars" often heard.

Finally the prime minister's mouth hardened and he glared at his tormentors like a lion at bay—an impressive feature, with straight cut features, flushed with anger and heavy gray hair.

After trying vainly for three quarters of an hour to get a hearing, Premier Asquith cut short his projected speech and amid a hubbub declared that if the lords would not consent to restore the veto bill, even with reasonable amendments, to substantially its original form, the government would be compelled to invoke the exercise of the royal prerogative for the creation of new peers.

A. J. Balfour replied that the government by this one stroke had used the prerogative of the crown to destroy the second chamber. Others attempted to speak but were howled down, and unable to restore order Speaker Lowther declared the sitting suspended.

Peers Crowd the House.

No parliamentary event of modern times has so quickened the public pulse as the present political crisis arising from the veto bill and anxiety to know the exact terms of Premier Asquith's ultimatum to the peers crowded the house in a way not before for many years.

The members of the lower chamber, usually so decorous, gave vent to their feelings by rising and cheering frantically and waving handkerchiefs as their respective leaders entered. There was some groans from the Unionist benches, intermingled with an occasional shout of "traitor" when Asquith made his appearance.

The opening scenes of the historic session were among the stormiest ever witnessed in the house. As he rose to speak the premier was encouraged by a roar of applause from the Radical, Irish and Labor benches, but an answering volley of cheers came from the opposition, while a small group of stampeters busily chanted "traitor, traitor, traitor," until Speaker Lowther warned them to control themselves.

Prominent among the disorderly ones was Lord Hugh Cecil, the Conservative Free Trader from Oxford university, who incessantly chanted "divide, divide, divide."

The Radical members appealed to the speaker to metaphorically turn him out.

Frederick E. Smith, Unionist for the Walton division of Liverpool, injected the claim that the Unionists were entitled to protest in this fashion, if they thought that the cabinet had degraded the political life of the country.

This led to a renewal of the outbreak. Meanwhile Premier Asquith stood at the table waiting a lull in the storm. His first word, however, was a signal for another cyclone and for twenty minutes the premier stood, unable to get a word in.

CLAIMS CURE OF PHTHISIS

English Coal Miner's Tests With Rotten Meat Attract Attention.

London, July 25.—Following on the heels of the report of the royal tuberculosis commission comes the announcement of a strange new cure for consumption, claimed by a former collier named Bryant, who was attacked by consumption while at work in the mine at Bradford.

Bryant started the breeding of maggots and there was an immediate and continuous improvement in health that led him to suppose the gas of the putrefied meat upon which he bred the maggots was the cause.

He sent for his youngest daughter, who was in a consumption sanitarium in the Isle of Wight, and in two months she became a robust girl, having gained seventeen pounds. Bryant now has thirty patients breathing the odor of the putrefied meat, with a result that is said to be excellent.

A gentleman of the district has given the local council $5,000 to erect a building for a test of the cure on a big scale.

Free Sample Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get them to again do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. F. Wisner's of Sycamore, Ill. and Mrs. Carrie Culler's of 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind. are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

RAVENWOOD.

This part of the country had a fine rain Saturday night—about two inches—and all vegetation that had any life in it is much improved and taking on new life. The rain came without any high wind and was all absorbed by the dry earth.

Corn, though badly damaged, will be much benefited, and I think we may yet hope for an average crop with a few showers through August.

A large portion of the gardens were already dried up, but some of it will now take on new life.

Threshing has been in progress for the last two weeks. Wheat is making a good yield and a fine quality. Oats will be an average crop.

The dry hot weather has caused some stagnation in business, but we hope it will now recover.

A. G. Bentley and Fay Casteel and families will return from their western trip this week.

RATES TO COAST SUFFER DEEP CUT

Interstate Commission Strikes Out Back Haul Charges.

REDUCTION ABOUT ONE-THIRD.

Intermountain Territory to Get Most of Immediate Benefit—Rates Based on Straight Interpretation of Long and Short Haul.

Washington, July 25.—Decisions of far-reaching importance were announced by the Interstate commerce commission. They affect directly all freight rates between the Atlantic ocean and the Pacific coast. Particularly, they affect the rates in the territory lying between Denver and Pacific coast points.

The rates to this intermountain territory heretofore have been made without any definite relation to the water-competitive rates to the Pacific coast, the extent of the discrimination being entirely optional with the carriers. By the opinions handed down the commission has attempted to arrive at a definite relation of the rates to the non-competitive points as compared with those to the coast, and has laid down the extent to which the rates to interior points may exceed the coast rates.

In all the cases decided the carriers are given until Oct. 15 to file tariffs with the commission constructed in accordance with the views set forth in the opinions. The net result of the decisions will be to give lower rates on all westbound trans-continental traffic to cities in the inter-Rocky mountain territory. To all intents and purposes the back-haul rates from Pacific coast terminals to cities in the Rocky mountain territory are wiped out and the service rendered by the carriers will be paid by shippers substantially on a strict interpretation of the long-and-short-haul provision of the existing law.

What the Commission Holds.

The commission holds in the so-called Reno case that traffic originating at Chicago and in Chicago territory moving under commodity rates may have a rate 7 per cent higher to intermediate points than that imposed on freight originating in Chicago and Chicago territory destined to the Pacific coast terminals. From Buffalo, Pittsburg territory the rates may rise above those demanded from the same points to Pacific coast terminals to the extent of 15 per cent; while from New York and trunk line territory the rates charged shall not exceed 23 per cent over Pacific coast terminal rates.

These are the first decisions announced by the commission in which a definite principle in respect of the long-and-short-haul provision is laid down. While the opinions fully recognize the influence of water competition, to a marked extent they draw a line upon indiscriminate "market" competition.

The effect of the decision will be to notify the carriers that they will be allowed to meet water competition to a reasonable extent, but that the location of markets hereafter will be left more to the play of commercial causes than to the will of the traffic managers of railways.

U. S. TO LET CUBA ALONE

Knox Sends Word Denying Intervention Rumor.

Havana, July 25.—Rumors which have been current recently that the American government was considering another intervention in Cuba were dispelled when the American minister, John B. Jackson, visited Senor Sanguily, the Cuban secretary of state, and delivered a message from Secretary Knox which declared the American government had not the least intention of intervention.

Senor Sanguily expressed his warmest appreciation and said he was convinced nothing would disturb the intimate relations between the two countries.

LILLIAN GRAHAM DISAPPEARS

Police Send Out General Alarm for Girl Indicted for Shooting Stokes.

New York, July 25.—The police sent out a general alarm when Mrs. John Singleton complained that her sister, Lillian Graham, under indictment charged with shooting W. E. D. Stokes, had disappeared.

Ethel Conrad, also charged with shooting Stokes when he appeared at their apartment to recover letters he had written Miss Graham, believes Lillian has been kidnapped. The girls are out on $10,000 bail, pending trial set for next fall.

Eight Hurt by Explosion of Gas.

Gary, Ind., July 25.—Eight persons were injured and many lives were imperiled by an explosion which wrecked a three-story building occupied as a restaurant and shook the entire business section of the city. The police believe the explosion was caused by a leaking gaspipe.

Gets $110,000; Still Cooking.

Boston, July 25.—Though Max Braun, chief pastry cook in a Boston hotel, has inherited $110,000 from an uncle in Germany, he is not going to keep on cooking. He is not even going to the old country to get it, but will have it invested for him and keep it there.

BIG BLAZE IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Two Square Miles Devastated in Stamboul.

FIVE THOUSAND HOUSES BURN

Fire Which Breaks Out in Ancient Quarter of City in Several Places at Same Time Probably Started by Political Incendiarists.

Constantinople, July 25.—The conflagration which started last evening continued until 3 a. m., by which time the flames were gotten under control, but practically because there was no further fuel in their path. The disaster was the greatest since the great fire in Pera, the European quarter, in 1870.

It is believed that the present fire was the work of political incendiaries. It broke out simultaneously at several points in Stamboul, the ancient city, while the people were celebrating the anniversary of the new constitution. The most formidable blaze flared up near the ministry of war and was borne by a strong north wind through the residential section of the southern coast. From the square in front of the war ministry east to the center of Stamboul to the sea of Marmora, on the south, practically nothing was left standing.

Two square miles of the city was devastated. It is roughly estimated that over 5,000 houses were destroyed. The greater number of these were wooden buildings, but several important stone structures were ruined.

TWO SLAIN IN FAMILY FIGHT

William Simms and Wife Killed by Son-in-Law at Jackson, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., July 25.—Specials from Jackson give particulars of a family fight at South Quicksands, near Jackson, in which two persons were killed and another seriously wounded. The victims were William Simms and wife, Mrs. Eliza Simms, who were killed, and Alonzo Allen, who was seriously wounded. Normal Allen, a son-in-law of the dead couple, and a brother of Alonzo, is at large.

The Allens, it is said, attacked the old people because of some grievances of the son-in-law.

That Mrs. Simms was foremost in the shooting was the statement of Alonzo Allen, who was brought to Lexington. Allen said that he and his brother went to the Simms home on an invitation and that as they entered Simms and his wife began firing at them. After he was wounded four times, he said, his brother shot and killed Mrs. Simms and then killed her husband.

Pope is Ill and Suspends Audiences.

Rome, July 25.—Pope Pius has taken cold and is suffering from a sore throat as well as experiencing the inconvenience of hoarseness. Dr. Marchisava, consulting physician to his holiness, visited the latter in company with Dr. Pettacci, the pontiff's private physician. They found that the patient had a slight rise in temperature and ordered that his audiences for the present be abandoned.

Eight Firemen Hurt in Toledo Blaze.

Toledo, July 25.—Eight firemen were injured in a fire which destroyed the four buildings of the B. A. Stevens company, manufacturers of billiard and pool fixtures, and eight dwellings and frame store rooms. The total damage is estimated at $325,000.

DAILY DEMOCRAT FORUM

(Successor to the Maryville Republican)

VOLUME 2.

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, TUESDAY, JULY 25, 1911.

NO. 44.

POSTAL BANK HERE

AUGUST 19 IS THE DATE SET FOR THE OPENING.

ARE SUCCESS ELSEWHERE

Savings Accounts Can Be Started With $1, and $500 is the Limit of Individual Deposits.

Postmaster S. R. Beech has received word from Postmaster General Hitchcock at Washington, D. C., to open a postal savings bank in Maryville on August 19, 1911. Many of the other towns in Missouri have now postal savings banks in connection with the postoffice, and they have met with good success, and it has been shown that they interfere in no way with the business of the local banks.

In Cripple Creek, Col., where the biggest bank of the country is at present, the deposits now aggregate more than $66,000, and the ordinary deposits of the Cripple Creek banks have sustained no decrease. The $66,000 was simply coaxed out of hiding places and belonged to people who did not have enough money to start a bank account or were afraid of banks. In the postal savings bank one can start a savings account with 10 cents.

The funds gathered by the postal savings bank are loaned by it to the local banks when they furnish satisfactory security, and thus the money remains in the locality in which it was created. The United States government stands back of all deposits, and 2 per cent interest per annum is paid to depositors.

The windows on the west side of the postoffice building now used for money orders and registrations will be used for the bank, under the direction of Postmaster S. R. Beech.

Below will be found some information in regard to the rules and plans of the postal savings bank to be opened here, the information being written by Postmaster-General Hitchcock:

Object.

The postal savings system is established for the purpose of providing facilities for depositing savings at interest with the security of the United States government for repayment.

Safety.

The faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of deposits made in postal savings depository offices with accrued interest as provided by the postal savings act.

Who May Deposit.

Accounts may be opened and deposits made by any person of the age of 10 years or over in his or her own name and by a married woman in her own name and free from any interference or control by her husband. No person can have more than one account at any one time.

No person may open a postal savings account at any postoffice who is not a patron of that office.

All accounts must be opened in person by the depositor or his authorized representative. After opening an account a depositor may forward subsequent deposits to the postoffice by mail.

Deposits will be accepted only from individuals, and no account will be opened in the name of any corporation, association, society, firm or partnership, or in the names of two or more persons jointly.

No account will be opened in the name of one person in trust for or on behalf of another person or persons.

How to Open an Account.

When a person applies to open an account he must furnish the necessary information for the postmaster or his representative to fill out an application, which he will then be required to sign. If the applicant signs by mark his signature must be witnessed by a disinterested person.

Deposits.

Deposits are evidenced by postal savings certificates issued in fixed denominations of $1, $2, $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100, each bearing the name of the depositor, the number of his account, the date of issue, the name of the depository office, and the date on which interest begins. The postmaster or his representative will make out a duplicate of each certificate issued, which the depositor will be required to sign and which the postmaster will retain in his records.

No account may be opened for less than $1, nor will fractions of a dollar be accepted for deposit.

No person is permitted to deposit more than $100 in any one calendar month nor to have a total balance to his credit at one time of more than $500 exclusive of accumulated interest.

Savings certificates cannot be transferred or negotiated and will be payable only to the person to whom issued.

On opening an account a depositor is supplied with an envelope in which he may keep his savings certificates. On this envelope is printed information for his guidance, and also a blank ledger record on which to keep an account of his deposits and withdrawals.

In case a savings certificate is lost or destroyed the depositor should notify the postmaster. If deemed proper a new certificate will be issued upon compliance by the depositor with the necessary requirements.

Postmasters are not permitted to receive savings certificates for safekeeping.

Interest.

Interest will be allowed on all deposits at the rate of 2 per cent per annum, computed on each savings certificate separately, and payable annually. No interest will be paid on money which remains on deposit for a fraction of a year only.

Deposits will bear interest from the 1st day of the month next following that in which deposited.

Interest will continue to accrue on a savings certificate as long as it remains outstanding, certificate being valid until paid, without limitation as to time.

Compound interest is not allowed on an outstanding certificate, but a depositor may withdraw interest payable and include it in a new deposit, which will bear interest at the regular rate.

Withdrawals.

A depositor may at any time withdraw the whole or any part of his deposits to his credit with any interest payable by surrendering saving certificates, properly indorsed, for the amount desired.

YOUNG MAN BADLY INJURED ON WABASH BRIDGE

John Carl, a member of the bridge gang that is working on the Wabash bridge over the 102 river, was badly hurt this morning, when he fell off the bridge and sustained serious injuries. He was taken on a handcar to the state road bridge on the Wabash by Henry Steele, foreman of the bridge gang, and there met by an ambulance which took him to St. Francis hospital.

The young man's home is in Brunswick, and he is about 35 years old. He sustained a broken leg and other internal injuries. His physician, Dr. G. A. Nash, reports him resting easy this afternoon, and says his chances for recovery are good.

This is the second accident that has happened at the Wabash river bridge, which is being repaired. Amos Beach, a concrete worker, was killed last Thursday afternoon, when a rope broke that was fastened to a derrick, causing him to fall on his head on a pile of lumber and steel.

Barnard People in Town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbell and Mr. and Mrs. James C. Lett of Barnard were in Maryville Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell are the parents of the late Oda Hubbell, who was killed last November.

The fire team was called to the Jones blacksmith shop this afternoon, on what proved to be a false alarm. There was a little fire, but it was put out in a few minutes.

DIED IN COLORADO

MRS. WM. H. WALKER OF BURLINGTON JUNCTION.

CAME TO COUNTY IN 1865

Remains Will Be Brought Back for Burial—Eight Sons and Daughters Survive.

Mrs. William H. Walker of Burlington Junction, who has been visiting her son, Everett Walker, and wife of Loveland, Col., died in Denver, Col., Monday evening of Bright's disease. Mrs. Walker, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Anna Walker, has been spending several weeks in Colorado. When she became seriously ill they sent a telegram to Charles Walker, her son at Burlington Junction to come at once to Colorado, and he started at once to his mother's bedside, but the second telegram was sent, saying their mother was unconscious and it would be useless for him to come. He was then on his way to Colorado, but the relatives at Burlington Junction wired to St. Joseph and he received the word and returned home.

Mrs. Walker was the widow of the late William H. Walker, one of the most influential and highly respected citizens of Northwestern Missouri.

Mr. Walker was a member of the Twenty-sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, being one of the members of Company B, which saw some very strenuous service.

Mrs. Walker's maiden name was Mary A. Manes, and she was born in Brownsburg, Ind. She was the daughter of Elihu and Margaret Manes, who, in 1865, came to Nodaway county, Missouri, and located near Clearmont.

William H. Walker came to Nodaway county in 1865 with his parents, and they purchased land where the Walker homestead now is.

December 24, 1868, William H. Walker and Miss Mary Manes were united in marriage. After their marriage they began farming two and one-quarter miles south of Clearmont and there developed a good farm, where they lived until 1880. Then they bought the present Walker homestead, where Mr. Walker's death occurred on November 2, 1907.

Mr. Walker accumulated a great deal of land and left his widow well provided for.

Mrs. Walker was a member of the Christian church and was a highly respected and well loved Christian woman.

Miss Anna Walker of Burlington Junction, who was with her mother and Everett Walker and wife of Loveland, Col., started to Burlington Junction Tuesday with the remains and are expected to reach there Wednesday evening. No definite arrangements have been made for the funeral, which will be in Burlington Junction.

Mrs. Walker leaves eight living children to mourn her loss. They are: Charles E., William H. and Jesse H. of Burlington Junction; Edward M., living north of Maryville; Everett E. of Loveland, Col.; Mrs. E. T. McDowell of Okmulgee, Okla.; Mrs. Lewis Allen of St. Joseph, and Miss Anna Walker, who lives at home.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE AT SKIDMORE THIS WEEK

The Maryville district conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will convene at Skidmore this, Tuesday, evening, and will be in session until Thursday evening. Rev. J. S. Ford, pastor of the First M. E. church in Maryville, left Tuesday for Skidmore. He is on the program Thursday afternoon for an address on "The Work of the General Committees." W. F. Smith of this city is also on the program for Thursday morning.

BARNARD PICNIC ON AUGUST 3, 4 AND 5

Barnard's eighteenth annual "Three Days of Fun" is advertised this year for August 3, 4 and 5. Good music, speakers and numerous free attractions are promised. Special accommodations have been arranged for autos, and a record breaking crowd is looked for.

H. J. Trusty of Creston, Ia., was in Maryville Monday.

WHAT OTHERS PAY

WATER RATES PREVAILING IN OTHER TOWNS INVESTIGATED.

MUCH LOWER THAN HERE

Reports Are Generally Official—Enthusiastic Approval of Municipal Ownership from Columbia.

Since Maryville is to vote on Tuesday, August 15, on $100,000 bond issue to install a water plant, it might be well to read what some nearby towns have to say about municipal ownership and the rates they are charging.

These letters were received by Mayor Robey, and some of them were read at the public meeting of the citizens last week. More letters will be published later on.

From the letters below it will be seen that their water is not costing any of those towns more than 25 cents per 1,000 gallons, while we are now paying 33 1/3 cents per 1,000 gallons with a 50 cents minimum rate, and the company wanted to raise it to 50 cents per 1,000 gallons and 75 cents minimum rate.

Columbia, Mo.

The following was the letter Mayor Robey received from Columbia from E. C. Clinkscales, superintendent of the Columbia water and light department: "This town is thoroughly convinced that municipal ownership of its water and electric light business is the proper thing. When it is considered that the water and light used by the public for fire protection and for street lighting would cost the city, if owned by a private company, not less than $16,000 per annum, and does not cost anything under municipal ownership, the reason for our faith is apparent. Columbia is not only getting its public water and light free of cost, but the department is now earning $20,000 per year in addition. Other departments of the city draw on our funds occasionally to pay their bills and repay when they have the money.

"Our water is from deep wells and is fine. We sell it from 18 cents per 1,000 gallons up to 25 cents per 1,000 gallons. We don't make much on our water. You understand we have to pump it twice; once from the ground, then again in the pipes. If we used this from the river or creek, where the water flowed right into the pumps, it could be hauled much cheaper.

"The price of water is 25 cents per 1,000 gallons up to 8,000 gallons used in one month. When the quantity is greater the price is reduced as shown by the scale below: For less than 8,000 gallons, 25 cents; for 8,000 to 16,000, 24 cents; for 16,000 to 24,000, 23 cents; for 24,000 to 32,000, 22 cents; for 32,000 to 40,000, 21 cents; for 40,000 to 48,000, 20 cents; for 48,000 to 56,000, 19 cents; for 56,000 to 64,000, 18 cents; for 64,000 gallons or over, 18 cents."

Clarinda, Ia.

In a communication from the city clerk, C. W. Stuart, at Clarinda to Mayor Robey, he says: "The city owns the water system. The electric light plant pumps water from the wells, which are located in the incorporated limits. No charge for hydrants as city owns the water plant. The meter rate is 20 cents per 1,000 gallons to every one using water. No minimum or flat rate."

Wellington, Kan.

From M. E. Stone, superintendent of the water plant at Wellington: "The plant is under municipal ownership and we get our water from wells and creek, being located one mile from town. The meter rate is 15 cents per 1,000 gallons. Where city owns meter a rent of 25 cents per month is charged, and minimum rate of 50 cents per month is collected, regardless of quantity of water consumed."

Fairfield, Ia.

From W. L. Long, city clerk, says: "The water plant is owned by the city and is located about a mile from town. The plant pays a revenue of $2,500 per year above all expenses, without interest for hydrant rent or charge for interest on investment, assuming the one will offset the other. The meter maximum rate is 40, the minimum 15 cents; kitchen sink, $5; closet, $5, bath, $3, on flat rate."

Red Oak, Ia.

From city clerk at Red Oak: "The city owns the water system and contracts with the Electric Light company for the pumping at 5 cents per 1,000 gallons. The Electric Light company supply their own motor and pump in duplicate, and that is all they have anything to do with. They contract to keep our stand pipe full of water under ordinary conditions. We have two wells filled by spring water, 24 feet in diameter by 40 feet in depth. The plant is located not more than three-fourths of a mile from business section. Do not make any charge to city for hydrants. We have but one flat rate of $6 per year where there is no sewer connection with the property, others are all metered. Our meter rates follows: Five hundred gallons, 25 cents per 1,000 gallons; 500 to 1,000 gallons, 20 cents per 1,000 gallons; 1,000 to 2,000, 16 cents; 2,000 to 3,000, 13 cents; 3,000 to 4,000, 12 cents; 4,000 to 5,000, 11 cents; over 5,000 gallons, special; minimum rate of 75 cents per quarter."

Shenandoah, Ia.

From the city clerk at Shenandoah: "The city owns the plant and the cook wells are located six blocks from the business section. The meter rates are: Less than 100 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 20 cents; 100 to 500 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 20 cents; 500 to 1,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 20 cents; 1,000 to 5,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 18 cents; 5,000 to 10,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 12 cents; 10,000 to 20,000 gallons per day, per 1,000 gallons, 8 cents."

EVERY LINE A LIFT

HOMER CROY BOASTS IN "THE MAGAZINE MAKER."

A MAGAZINE ON WRITING

The Unique Venture of a Former Maryville Boy Gives Birth to a New Idea.

A copy of Homer Croy's new magazine, "The Magazine Maker," was received by The Democrat-Forum this morning. It is a creditable edition and is a magazine for writers and editors. Many of the biggest editors over the country are writing Mr. Croy, telling him that it fills the long felt and that he has struck something big.

Mr. Croy, besides running this magazine, has outside magazine work and newspaper contracts to fill. In the Judge he has a weekly department—"We Have With Us Tonight."

Mr. Croy is a former Maryville boy who is making a success and his many friends back here wish him the best of luck in his new venture.

In the first number Mr. Croy, in writing under the caption "Finding Our Toes," says:

You have in your hands the first number of this magazine. Of course, now that you have it before you it looks easy, but Oh the nights we have sat up with it! We remember the day we got the idea to start this magazine. It hit us all in a bunch, and the milk wagons were beginning to rattle before it would let us get a shred from the raveled sleeve.

We think any big idea makes one a bit immortal.

Our aim is very simple. We are going to give you a magazine on writing and making magazines that you will read from cover to cover. It will be written by men who are actually in the business of writing, whose advice can be relied upon. Its contributors are not mere theorists, but people who make their bread and butter by writing. The biggest names in the magazine field will appear in this magazine. We shall cover the whole business of writing—from trade journals to novels.

Maybe you had better read over the sub-title again.

We're going to tell you from month to month how to develop ideas for articles and stories, how to write the stories and articles and how and where to sell your manuscripts. Everything but getting the idea. You will have to do that yourself.

This magazine will always be bright and up-to-the-minute. If any reader should report that he nodded over a single page the editor would feel eternally disgraced.

Every line's a lift.

In this number we are just finding our toes. The next time we come to you we will be walking, and pretty soon we'll be a lusty youngster that you'll be proud to have in your literary family. The contents are what count, and every time we look at our index we smile all over. We're proud of every page in the magazine. We're not very big this time but we're going to grow, grow, grow—just like that. The subscription price is a dollar a year—now!

Come in aches, pains and burning sensations. Most everybody has these symptoms sooner or later—few people heed them soon enough. We are here to fit you perfectly in the quickest possible time.

The Burglar and the Girl.

There was fun a-plenty among a crowd of young ladies on West Third street Monday night, so thought two officers when they arrived on the scene and found, instead of a thief or drunken man, a porch full of smiling, happy and fun loving girls. It happened this way:

Mrs. Frances Totterdale and daughter, Anna Belle, of West Third street, were preparing to retire for the night when a step was heard on their back porch. At first they thought it was Mrs. G. W. Turner, a neighbor lady, but as she did not walk in a suspicious arose in the minds of the ladies that it might be some one else, so Miss Anna
Belle called to know who was there.
No response. On looking through a window she could see a man standing there and she asked again who was there and what was wanted. Again no response. She tried to remember Mrs. Turner's name to call her by phone, but the only thing she could remember when she reached the telephone was to call for help, so she turned in a police alarm, and in the course of a very short time the officers were there ready to take the offender into custody, but when they arrived the "man" had made his "get away," and they found instead a crowd of pleasure seeking girls, and "mum's the word" as to who the boy of the crowd was.

KEELEY TESTIFIES IN LORIMER CASE

Tells of Alleged Attempt to Buy Votes for Hopkins.

Washington, July 25.—A detailed account of a reputed attempt to buy enough Democratic votes in the Illinois legislature to re-elect Albert J.
Hopkins to the senate was told on the witness stand before the senate Lorimer committee by James Keeley, general manager of the Chicago Tribune.

It was the sensation of a day of sensations in the hearing. It followed Mr. Keeley's testimony as to how he happened to buy the confession of Charles A. White, the legislator whose story about graft at Springfield resulted in the Lorimer investigation. It was subsequent to testimony by Edward Hines that Henry S. Boutell, now American minister to Switzerland, told him that President Taft would assist in the election of Lorimer to the senate.

Mr. Keeley said what he knew about the Hopkins story was obtained from Clifford Raymond, then representing the Tribune at Springfield, and from Ira C. Copley, representative in congress from Aurora, Ill. According to the story the deal was prevented by Speaker Shurtliff, who had a list of certain Democratic votes to be brought on a certain day and the prices to be paid.

WILL CAUCUS ON WOOL

Democrats May Decide to Support House Bill Instead of La Follette Bill.

Washington, July 25.—The Democratic senators have decided to hold a caucus tomorrow to decide on wool tariff revision. Democratic leaders are contenting themselves to vote on the house wool bill and to refrain from passing the La Follette wool bill though senatorial advocates of the La Follette bill are in the majority. Many conferences have been held among Democrats and insurgents and the question is monopolizing the attention of senators.

Debate on the Underwood revision bill from the house, beginning after routine business, will run until the vote next Thursday.

The senate is going ahead with the program agreed on for clearing up all important business. When the wool vote has been taken up Thursday debate on the free list bill will begin and that measure will be voted on Aug. 1.

Then will come the house reapportionment bill, with a vote on Aug. 3, to be followed by the statehood measure, to be voted on Aug. 7.

COMMITTEE MEETS ARBUCKLE

Propped Up in Bed, Sugar Magnate Gives Testimony.

New Platts, N. Y., July 25.—The one-good reason why the warring sugar interests did not sign an agreement to end the conflict was fear of the Sherman anti-trust law. There were minor considerations, of course, but every time the matter was broached to John Arbuckle, when the fight waged warmest, Mr. Arbuckle declined and told his opponents to remember the Sherman law.

Propped up by pillows in his bed,
Mr. Arbuckle so testified before a subcommittee of the congressional investigating committee. The congressmen had come to Mr. Arbuckle's bedside because he was unable to come to them and they found him apparently unreserved in giving the history of his commercial battles.

WILD SCENES IN COMMONS

Premier Howled Down When He Attempts to Speak on Veto.

FINALLY ABANDONS HIS SPEECH

Tells Members of Parliament That the King Will Create the Necessary
Peers if the Lords Refuse to Drop Amendments to Measure.

London, July 25.—The last act of the parliamentary revolution was ushered in with a revolutionary scene. For the first time in its history, the house of commons refused to listen to a speech by the prime minister. For the first time in its history the speaker was compelled to invoke the rule which empowers him "in case of grave disorder" to declare the sitting adjourned on his own responsibility.

No such hostile passions have been given free rein in a chamber which traditionally carries on its debates with chivalrous courtesy, since the stormy days of the Gladstone home rule bills.

During three-quarters of an hour,
Mr. Asquith rose at short intervals and read a sentence or two from a manuscript, only to be overwhelmed by jeers, hootings and cries, among which "traitor" was the most frequent, but with "Redmond," "Patrick Ford" and "American dollars" often heard.

Finally the prime minister's mouth hardened and he glared at his tormentors like a lion at bay—an impressive feature, with straight cut features, flushed with anger and heavy gray hair.

After trying vainly for three-quarters of an hour to get a hearing, Premier Asquith cut short his projected speech and amid a hubbub declared that if the lords would not consent to restore the veto bill, even with reasonable amendments, to substantially its original form, the government would be compelled to invoke the exercise of the royal prerogative for the creation of new peers.

A. J. Balfour replied that the government by this one stroke had used the prerogative of the crown to destroy the second chamber. Others attempted to speak but were howled down, and unable to restore order Speaker
Lowther declared the sitting suspended.

Peers Crowd the House.
No parliamentary event of modern times has so quickened the public pulse as the present political crisis arising from the veto bill and anxiety to know the exact terms of Premier Asquith's ultimatum to the peers crowded the house in a way not before for many years.

The members of the lower chamber, usually so decorous, gave vent to their feelings by rising and cheering frantically and waving handkerchiefs as their respective leaders entered.
There was some groans from the Unionist benches, intermingled with an occasional shout of "traitor" when Asquith made his appearance.

The opening scenes of the historic session were among the stormiest ever witnessed in the house. As he rose to speak the premier was encouraged by a roar of applause from the Radical, Irish and Labor benches, but an answering volley of cheers came from the opposition, while a small group of standpatters busily chanted "traitor, traitor, traitor," until Speaker Low-ther warned them to control themselves.

Prominent among the disorderly ones was Lord Hugh Cecil, the Conservative Free Trader from Oxford university, who incessantly chanted
"divide, divide, divide."

The Radical members appealed to the speaker to metaphorically turn him out.

Frederick E. Smith, Unionist for the Walton division of Liverpool, injected the claim that the Unionists were entitled to protest in this fashion, if they thought that the cabinet had degraded
the political life of the country.

This led to a renewal of the outbreak. Meanwhile Premier Asquith stood at the table waiting a lull in the storm. His first word, however, was a signal for another cyclone and for twenty minutes the premier stood, unable to get a word in.

CLAIMS CURE OF PHTHISIS

English Coal Miner's Tests With Rotten Meat Attract Attention.

London, July 25.—Following on the heels of the report of the royal tuberculosis commission comes the announcement of a strange new cure for consumption, claimed by a former collier named Bryant, who was attacked by consumption while at work in the mine at Bradford.

Bryant started the breeding of maggots and there was an immediate and continuous improvement in health that led him to suppose the gas of the pu-trified meat upon which he bred the maggots was the cause.

He sent for his youngest daughter, who was in a consumption sanitarium in the Isle of Wight, and in two months she became a robust girl having gained seventeen pounds. Bryant now has thirty patients breathing the odor of the putrefied meat, with a result that is said to be excellent.

A gentleman of the district has given the local council $5,000 to erect a building for a test of the cure on a big scale.

Free Sample
Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly, and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get the food to do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. F. Wiesner's of Syracuse, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Culler's of 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind., are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500, Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

RAVENWOOD.

This part of the country had a fine rain Saturday night—about two inches—and all vegetation that had any life in it is much improved and taking on new life. The rain came without any high wind and was all absorbed by the dry earth.

Corn, though badly damaged, will be much benefited, and I think we may yet hope for an average crop with a few showers through August.

A large portion of the gardens were already dried up, but some of it will now take on new life.

Threshing has been in progress for the last two weeks. Wheat is making a good yield and a fine quality. Oats will be an average crop.

The dry hot weather has caused some stagnation in business, but we hope it will now recover.

A. G. Bentley and Fay Casteel and families will return from their western trip this week.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-two years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." It is positively guaranteed for coughs, colds and all bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at the Orear-Henry Drug company.

RATES TO COAST SUFFER DEEP CUT

Interstate Commission Strikes Out Back Haul Charges.

REDUCTION ABOUT ONE-THIRD.

Intermountain Territory to Get Most of Immediate Benefit—Rates Based on Straight Interpretation of Long and Short Haul.

Washington, July 25.—Decisions of far-reaching importance were announced by the interstate commerce commission. They affect directly all freight rates between the Atlantic ocean and the Pacific coast. Particularly, they affect the rates in the territory lying between Denver and Pacific coast points.

The rates to this inter-mountain territory heretofore have been made without any definite relation to the water-competitive rates to the Pacific coast, the extent of the discrimination being entirely optional with the carriers. By the opinions handed down the commission has attempted to arrive at a definite relation of the rates to the non-competitive points as compared with those to the coast, and has laid down the extent to which the rates to interior points may exceed the coast rates.

In all the cases decided the carriers are given until Oct. 15 to file tariffs with the commission constructed in accordance with the views set forth in the opinions. The net result of the decisions will be to give lower rates on all westbound trans-continental traffic to cities in the inter-Rocky mountain territory. To all intents and purposes the back-haul rates from Pacific coast terminals to cities in the Rocky mountain territory are wiped out and the service rendered by the carriers will be paid by shippers substantially on a strict interpretation of the long-and-short-haul provision of the existing law.

What the Commission Holds.

The commission holds in the so called Reno case that traffic originating at Chicago and in Chicago territory moving under commodity rates may have a rate 7 per cent higher to intermediate points than that imposed on freight originating in Chicago and Chicago territory destined to the Pacific coast terminals. From Buffalo-Pittsburg territory the rates may rise above those demanded from the same points to Pacific coast terminals to the extent of 15 per cent; while from New York and trunk line territory the rates charged shall not exceed 23 per cent over Pacific coast terminal rates.

These are the first decisions announced by the commission in which a definite principle in respect of the long-and-short-haul provision is laid down. While the opinions fully recognize the influence of water competition, to a marked extent they draw a line upon indiscriminate "market" competition.

The effect of the decision will be to notify the carriers that they will be allowed to meet water competition to a reasonable extent, but that the location of markets hereafter will be left more to the play of commercial causes than to the will of the traffic managers of railways.

U. S. TO LET CUBA ALONE

Knox Sends Word Denying Intervention Rumor.

Havana, July 25.—Rumors which have been current recently that the American government was considering another intervention in Cuba were dispelled when the American minister, John B. Jackson, visited Senor Sanguily, the Cuban secretary of state, and delivered a message from Secretary Knox which declared the American government had not the least intention of intervention.

Senor Sanguily expressed his warmest appreciation and said he was convinced nothing would disturb the intimate relations between the two countries.

Police Send Out General Alarm for Girl Indicted for Shooting Stokes.

New York, July 25.—The police sent out a general alarm when Mrs. John Singleton complained that her sister, Lillian Graham, under indictment charged with shooting W. E. D. Stokes, had disappeared.

Ethel Conrad, also charged with shooting Stokes when he appeared at their apartment to recover letters he had written Miss Graham, believes Lillian has been kidnapped. The girls are out on $10,000 bail, pending trial set for next fall.

Eight Hurt by Explosion of Gas.

Gary, Ind., July 25.—Eight persons were injured and many lives were imperiled by an explosion which wrecked a three-story building occupied as a restaurant and shook the entire business section of the city. The police believe the explosion was caused by a leaking gaspipe.

Gets $110,000; Still Cooking.

Boston, July 25.—Though Max Braun, chief pastry cook in a Boston hotel, has inherited $110,000 from an uncle in Germany, he is going to keep on cooking. He is not even going to the old country to get it, but will have it invested for him and keep it there.

BIG BLAZE IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Two Square Miles Devastated in Stamboul.

FIVE THOUSAND HOUSES BURN

Fire Which Breaks Out in Ancient Quarter of City in Several Places at Same Time Probably Started by Political Incendiaries.

Constantinople, July 25.—The conflagration which started last evening continued until 3 a. m., by which time the flames were gotten under control, but practically because there was no further fuel in their path. The disaster was the greatest since the great fire in Pera, the European quarter, in 1870.

It is believed that the present fire was the work of political incendiaries. It broke out simultaneously at several points in Stamboul, the ancient city, while the people were celebrating the anniversary of the new constitution. The most formidable blaze flared up near the ministry of war and was borne by a strong north wind through the residential section of the southern coast. From the square in front of the war ministry east to the center of Stamboul to the sea of Marmora, on the south, practically nothing was left standing.

Two square miles of the city was devastated. It is roughly estimated that over 5,000 houses were destroyed. The greater number of these were wooden buildings, but several important stone structures were ruined.

TWO SLAIN IN FAMILY FIGHT

William Simms and Wife Killed by Son-in-Law at Jackson, Ky.

Lexington, Ky., July 25.—Specials from Jackson give particulars of a family fight at South Quicksands, near Jackson, in which two persons were killed and another seriously wounded. The victims were William Simms and wife, Mrs. Eliza Simms, who were killed, and Alonzo Allen, who was seriously wounded. Normal Allen, a son-in-law of the dead couple, and a brother of Alonzo, is at large.

The Allens, it is said, attacked the old people because of some grievances of the son-in-law.

That Mrs. Simms was foremost in the shooting was the statement of Alonzo Allen, who was brought to Lexington. Allen said that he and his brother went to the Simms home on an invitation and that as they entered Simms and his wife began firing at them. After he was wounded four times, he said, his brother shot and killed Mrs. Simms and then killed her husband.

Pope Is Ill and Suspends Audiences.

Rome, July 25.—Pope Pius has taken cold and is suffering from a sore throat as well as experiencing the inconvenience of hoarseness. Dr. Marchisava, consulting physician to his holiness, visited the latter in company with Dr. Pettacci, the pontiff's private physician. They found that the patient had a slight rise in temperature and ordered that his audiences for the present be abandoned.

Eight Firemen Hurt in Toledo Blaze.

Toledo, July 25.—Eight firemen were injured in a fire which destroyed the four buildings of the B. A. Stevens company, manufacturers of billiard and pool fixtures, and eight dwellings and frame store rooms. The total damage is estimated at $325,000.

Bolt Kills Man; Stuns Twelve.

Seaside, Kan., July 25.—Arthur Williams, thirty-two years old, was killed and twelve fellow employees stunned by a bolt of lightning which struck a brick chimney on the house in which they were sleeping.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special Agent, Koch Pharmacy.
